Gift of Camel to Boston School Children Creates Great Interest in Shrine Circus

Franklin Park Zoo Receives Its First Camel

THE novel camel-naming contest in connection with our Second Annual Circus not only resulted in very considerable news publicity for the Circus but inspired editorials in the Boston Post and in the Boston Traveler as follows:

Editorial Boston Post, September 10, 1942:

"A FINE GIFT"

"The gift of a baby camel, which is to be made to the Franklin Park Zoo by the Shriners, is a welcome addition to Boston's fine collection of birds and animals. There are some who feel that in a time of war the zoo should be done away with. They look upon it as a waste of the public's money. But London still retains its great zoo even after three years in the war. In Boston hundreds of thousands find a respite from the speedy, hard workaday world of the moment at the zoo. It is above all an educational opportunity for children which can not be neglected and the new addition will intensify their interest in it."

Editorial Boston Traveler, September 18, 1942.

"ON NAMING A CAMEL"

"The Aleppo Temple will present a camel to the Franklin Park Zoo and Mayor Tobin's part will be to name it. Sympathy for his honor should only go so far. He accepted the responsibilities of office with the clear realization that they include such extra-curricular activities as naming camels.

"The camel is an unlovely beast. Perhaps he is more to be pitied than censured; his arid habitat could not fail to leave its mark on his disposition. It was natural that he became the symbol of 'The Great Mistake.'

"Let his honor gaze upon the beast. Let him gaze on its ignoble head, its undulating back, its stilt-like legs, its sand-blasted, moth-eaten hide. We wish him success in his task.

"It's just as well the zoo is getting a camel. It is good for the soul to look at a camel. It reconciles one, even in days like these, to the fate of being human."

In response to the latter editorial, Potentate Wilson promptly wrote the following letter to the Traveler—which was printed with humorous comment in the September 22 issue, except for the sentences which we have italicized:

Traveler Letter Box

"Boston Herald-Traveler

"Boston, Massachusetts

"Gentlemen:

"Your editorial last Thursday evening, with reference to the camel which is to be presented next week at the circus as a gift from Aleppo Temple, was obviously not written by a Shriner.

"The average school child learns that the camel has from time immemorial been the most important mode of conveyance in desert regions, largely because of the unusual formation of its hoofs, and the fact that it will travel from three to five days without water. Those carrying heavy burdens up to half a ton will do some 25 miles a day, while those used for speed alone can do from 60 to 90 miles.

"The camel's flesh is esteemed by the Arab, and its milk is his common food. The hair of the camel moreover serves in the East for making cloth for tents, carpets, and even wearing apparel, and it is imported into Europe for the manufacture of the finest painting brushes obtainable.

"In short, the 'unlovely' camel, with its 'sand-blasted, moth-eaten hide,' in past ages has proved a lot more indispensable than a lot of human beings we can think of.

"For some reason the Gospel story of the Three Wise Men has never been spoiled for me, artistically or otherwise, because they have been most frequently depicted as traveling by camel, nor has the camel on many a Christmas card seemed too 'unlovely.'

"Furthermore, whether our editorial friend approves or not, the camel down through the years has come to be the 'symbol' of the Shriners, and thus indirectly I suppose may to some extent be considered as symbolizing some of the suffering, patiently alleviated, and many times completely cured in the 15 Shrine Hospitals for Crippled Children in the United States and Canada. Hospitals for less fortunate children whose parents are financially unable to repair their crippled bodies, and operated without distinction of race, color or creed.

"To some of us the camel is not 'the symbol of The Great Mistake.'

"Sincerely yours,

"ROBERT G. WILSON, JR.,

"Potentate."

AN EDITORIAL ON THE SHRINE CIRCUS

THE following editorial is reprinted from the September 24, 1942, issue of the Boston Post with reference to the members of Aleppo Temple having the underprivileged children of Boston as their guests at our annual Circus this year.

SHRINE'S GUESTS

"There's a fine spirit of real consideration reflected in the announcement of the Aleppo Temple of the Shrine that it expects to have some 15,000 children from institutions of all denominations as guests during the run of the big circus it is sponsoring at Boston Garden beginning Monday.

"This annual circus provides funds for a number of the Shrine's many charitable works during the year. For that reason it is a source of revenue that is most important. In a day when high-pressure methods for getting funds for worthy causes are rampant it is refreshing to see an organization in operation that doesn't forget that even in the task of raising funds for worthwhile causes it can make someone happy."

The members who made this possible have been listed in our previous Daddy Lists, copies of which were sent to all members. The 4th Daddy List, which completes the list up to October 1, is printed in this issue. A final list will be printed in the November issue.

Due to the fact that more children were available to take to the Circus than the number subscribed we are still accepting subscriptions for this Daddy List to replace the tickets purchased by the Committee. Any member making returns in the future may still join the Daddy List and assist in the ultimate success of our second annual Circus.

WAKE UP, YOU YANKS

Wake up, you Yanks, and do your stuff, We've fooled around just long enough! It's war right now, and we're all in it. Objective? Victory! We've got to win it.

Turn out the ships, tanks, planes and guns, We've got to lick those Japs and Huns. It's war, my friends, and time to act. The cost? Forget it! Face the fact!

Our homes, our kids, our land, our God. That's why we fight for this old sod. Let's keep it fertile, rich and free. The reason? That or slavery!

Are you convinced? Are you in doubt? Still question what it's all about? Ask why the ships, tanks, planes and guns? Two damned good reasons—JAPS and HUNS!

ALEPO'S GIFT TO THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF BOSTON

ALTHOUGH Aleppo Temple's 2nd Annual Circus at Boston Garden is now history, the memory will linger long. When the school children of greater Boston visit the Franklin Park Zoo they will be reminded of the happy hours they spent at this year's Shrine Circus for they will find the baby camel presented to the Franklin Park Zoo by Aleppo Temple in memory of our second successful Shrine Circus.

This baby camel, which is only seven months old, was born in the Zoo at Columbus, Ohio, last St. Valentine's day. It is a male camel and its father and mother were given to the Columbus Zoo by the Shriners of that city.

Through a Camel Naming Contest run by Aleppo Temple in connection with our Circus, this new addition to the Franklin Park Zoo has been given the name of "Jeep."

Jeep, who is the first camel ever to occupy a berth in Boston's Zoo, was officially accepted for the City by Mayor Tobin at the Tuesday night performance. In accepting the gift for the school children of Boston, Mayor Tobin expressed his thanks and appreciation to the officers and members of Aleppo and said: "Who but the Shriners of Aleppo Temple would ever think of giving the first camel to Boston's Zoo; but these Shriners are like that, always trying to do something different and in a most generous way, which has long been proven through the work being carried on at the Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children."

Although the camel may not rate in the eyes of some as the most beautiful beast on the Ark, he is a symbol of the Order of the Mystic Shrine and we know that this little fellow, who is five feet six inches tall, will grow up to be an outstanding pet at the Franklin Park Zoo and will take his stand in the years to come along with Molly, Waddy and Tony.

The following is a list of names of school children who won the fifty-six prizes of War Bonds and Stamps in the Camel Naming Contest in connection with our Circus.

The first prize of a $25.00 War Bond was won by Maynard Strout of Somerville for suggesting the accepted name of "Jeep." The letter which accompanied this suggestion was picked by the Judges as the best letter in the contest.

GOVERNOR SALTONSTALL SHRINE LUNCHEON SPEAKER

THE Nobles of Aleppo Temple will be honored at their next Shrine Luncheon by having one of the outstanding Governors of the country as their Guest Speaker.

Taking time out from his busy office in the State House to speak to the Shriners on the subject, "Massachusetts in the War Effort," Governor Leverett Saltonstall, who is tirelessly working in the interests of the people of our Commonwealth, will give an inside story on what has taken place on Capitol Hill in the past few months and what we may expect for the near future. He promises to enlighten us on many points of great interest to all, especially the people of Greater Boston.

This luncheon will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Copley-Plaza Hotel, Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 12:30 P. M.

Come out and hear a stirring address and report on the condition of our State in the present emergency.

The committee are desirous of maintaining the practice of giving door prizes to those in attendance. If you wish to donate a prize, call Shrine Headquarters, Kenmore 0678, and proper recognition will be given.

"TO MAKE THE PUNISHMENT FIT THE CRIME"

OUR leader, Noble Walter Smith, has unloaded on our shoulders some of the grief that has been weighing him down anent the borrowing of band books by the members and their failure to bring 'em back, alive or otherwise. At various times some of the members have taken their music books home, presumably to perfect their technique, which, of course, was a commendable idea on their part. But —here is the "fly in the ointment"—they would not show up again for months, perhaps, and the band would go out on a job and find a raft of music parts missing. That meant some of the boys would either have to depend on their memories (if they could), or fake their parts. All of which was annoying, to say the least.

Noble Smith has made an urgent appeal, in fact several urgent appeals, to these recalcitrant members to either bring or send to headquarters any books or music scores belonging to the band that they may have borrowed, but, alas, without avail; there are a lot of books for the different instruments still shy. Of course Walter might send the sheriff after these delinquents, but being a mild-mannered chap does not like to get too tough. So he has asked the writer (who does not believe the meek will inherit the earth) to call attention (in our humble way) to the fact that a lot of band books and music are gathering dust in the homes of some of our past and present members, and the band needs 'em badly to function properly. Now, any of you guys who have borrowed band music and forgotten to return it, send or bring it to headquarters PRONTO—or else!

We believe in "making the punishment fit the crime," and while not very bloodthirsty, would suggest "something with boiling oil in it" for those who are guilty of this misdemeanor.

Noble Charles E. Brown, of Dover, N. H., plays alto in the band, but has not been to rehearsals recently. He writes that the reason for his absence is because he is engaged in defense work, but will try hard to attend as often as possible this Fall and Winter. Noble Brown is not only an alto player but is a fine organist and performer on the carillon. We recall that on a trip the band made to either Baltimore or Memphis, we wandered into a department store where someone was playing a carillon, and doing a fine job at it. A little later we bumped into Noble Brown and discovered he was the chap who had been acting as carillonneur.

Everyone is busy just now with the circus. Don't know just how it will pan out, as we got a notice from the chief that this column of nonsense must be sent in at once, and from present indications it looks like another big success.

Rehearsals are on again Monday nights, and we hope to have a good attendance and more enthusiasm. We note that Noble Bill Koenig was on the job at the Boston Garden at the opening of the circus. It is about time he put in an appearance as we have missed his cheerful grin for several weeks.

NEW CHIEF SURGEON AT SHRINE HOSPITAL

ANNOUNCEMENT of the appointment of Dr. Garry DeN. Hough, Jr., to succeed Dr. R. Nelson Hatt as chief surgeon in charge of the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children during the latter's leave of absence was made by Harry H. Caswell, chairman of the board of governors of the hospital. Dr. Hatt was recently commissioned a major in the Army Medical Corps and was granted leave of absence for the duration from a post he has held since the hospital was opened in 1924. Dr. Hough has been his assistant in recent years and his appointment to succeed Dr. Hatt has been a foregone conclusion according to Mr. Caswell, who stated that no one else was even considered for the post.

Dr. Hough was born in New Bedford, Mass., in 1897, graduating from Wesleyan University in 1918 and from Harvard Medical School in 1921. He came to Springfield in 1925 from New Bedford and has been in practice here since that time and beside being on the staff of the Shriner's Hospital is also on the staffs of the Wesson Memorial and Springfield Hospitals.

FIRST mention in the news belongs to Harold Bean, of the third platoon, our most recent member to enter the service. Harold is now a lieutenant in the flying corps, stationed at Camp Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas. He saw service with the army from 1911 to 1914 and with the navy from 1914 to 1916. I know that he, as well as the others in the service, is anxious to hear from us, so here is his serial number—O-492340.

Howard Sharts' address is changed to Company A, first platoon, 2nd Medical Training Battalion, Camp Pickett, Va.

Fred H. Wilcke is now a member of Company C, 4th Battalion, O. R. T. C., Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md.

Walter Duncan, formerly of the second platoon, is now a lieutenant in the army. Capt. Harold Arnold, who was a member of the second platoon two or three years ago, called at the office in September and inquired about his old buddies.

While our heroes are away, others must carry the torch in fraternal bodies, and as this is the beginning of a new year, several of our members have assumed leading stations.

Andrew McCulloch attained eminence September 21, when he was installed Commander of St. Omer Commandery. Em. George Weeks, with the assistance of Em. Russell Lynn, conducted the installation. Clyde Carter, also of the first platoon, stepped up to Captain General. Em. Bill Sharpe, lieutenant of the "crack fourth platoon," graciously withdrew and became a Past Commander.

Incidentally, George Weeks and Russ Lynn installed the officers of Cambridge Commandery September 22, and also performed the same service at Cypress Commandery, September 24.

Herb Lundy, of the third platoon, was installed Eminent Commander of DeMolay Commandery September 23, and Karl Reece became a Past Commander.

Robert Boehner, of the second platoon, was installed Worshipful Master of Beth Horon Lodge September 8.

Our Potentate, Em. Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., installed the officers of Boston Commandery September 16. Frank Ellis is now Generalissimo.

We regret to hear that Archie Felton, for many years a member of the second platoon, has just undergone a major operation at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. Our best wishes go to him.

Alexander Varkas, assistant U. S. attorney at Boston, and a member of the fourth platoon, was the chief speaker at St. Paul's Church, Sunday, September 20, the occasion being "Greek Night."

Reggie Morse, of the second platoon, has started a new theatrical enterprise as one of the principals in the Columbia Theatre Co. This new corporation has opened the Portsmouth Theater, providing stage shows, the company being drawn from those actors who have earned some fame at the Ogunquit Playhouse in Maine. "Good luck, Reggie!"

My mail seldom comes from so far away as Hawaii, but this month I was pleased as well as surprised to hear from a life member of Aleppo, who has been located at Waimanalo Beach, virtually Pearl Harbor. Noble Atwood B. Hobbs is a guest member of the patrol of Aloha Temple. He enjoys reading the news of Aleppo and sends greetings to all who remember him. He says that Aloha Temple has held a big football game every year in December for the purpose of financing its hospital. Last year the classic was held December 6—and on the next day, the island was almost destroyed by the Pearl Harbor blitz by the Japs. While enjoying the natural beauties of that far-away Pacific island, he envies us the pleasure of holding our meetings with no fear of being blitzed by Japs. In behalf of the members of Aleppo patrol, I send him and the members of Aloha patrol our best wishes for a satisfactory peace.

THE one hundred thirtieth Annual Meeting of the Supreme Council of 33rd Degree Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction was held in the Statler Hotel, Boston, September 22, 23, and 24, presided over by Melvin Maynard Johnson, Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commander.

For the first time in the history of the Council, four Bishops participated in the Service.

Because of the war, many of the customary social programs and sightseeing tours planned for the entertainment of the members and their families were cancelled and theater parties, dinners and special stage shows were substituted.

A private dinner for active members of the Council and guests was given at the Algonquin Club the evening of September 23.

During the Council meeting an oil painting of Dr. Frederick W. Hamilton, late Deputy for Massachusetts in the Supreme Council, was hung in the meeting hall in the Statler Hotel. The painting was executed by Charles W. Dennis of Needham for the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, which Dr. Hamilton served for many years as Secretary. He was for many years up to the time of his death one of the five active 33rd degree Masons in Massachusetts.

At this session Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio was elected an active member of the Supreme Council. At the closing session Governor Bricker was installed by the Most Puissant Melvin M. Johnson.

At the general session Professor Albert A. Schaefer, of Boston, Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts, Norman K. Wiggin of Melrose, Harold W. Sprague of Brockton and Edmund G. Haskell of Haverhill were among those elected honorary 33rd degree Masons in a class of 121 candidates.

Lt.-Gen. William S. Knudsen, U. S. Army, former president of General Motors Corporation, and Dr. Willard K. Dow, president of the Dow Chemical Company, were among those nominated to receive the 33d degree at the annual session next year.

SHRINE PATROL ON PARADE FOR WINGS FOR NORWAY

The above picture of the Second Platoon of the Arab Patrol reproduced by courtesy of the Boston Post shows Lt. Beckman and his second platoon of the Arab Patrol in an exhibition drill at the "Wings for Norway" Fete held at the Boston Garden, Sunday, September 27.

The Boston Post caption accompanying the picture said that the drill team made a big hit. Carrying American Flags and executing difficult maneuvers with machine-gun precision, they evoked round after round of applause. The platoon "stopped the show" for a few minutes.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The following letter of appreciation was received by Lt. Beckman from Mr. John A. Berggren, Director for the program for "Wings for Norway."

"Dr. Roger P. Beckman,
"16 Essex St.,
"Clifftondale, Mass.
"Dear Noble Beckman,

"I want to express to you and the Nobles of your Platoon my heartfelt thanks for your wonderful exhibition at the Wings for Norway demonstration in the Boston Garden.

"As a Noble of Aleppo Temple I knew that you would add splendidly to our program with your colorful drilling.

"I was pleased to see the picture of the Platoon in this morning's paper.

"Again, many thanks to all.

"Fraternally yours,

"JOHN A. BERGGREN,
"Director of Program."

MASONIC PRACTICE

A MAN may receive all the Masonic Degrees, and still never truly become a Mason. And it does not lie within the power of a Lodge to make a man a Mason. As in the case of the proverbial horse, which can easily be led to the water but cannot be forced to drink, so a man may be conducted to the altar of Masonry, where are the refreshing waters, and if he does not partake, what reason have we for thinking he is one bit different than he was before?

We might, with just as much reason, expect a cure to take place by showing the patient the liniment and rubbing the bottle.

BUT DON'T START ANYTHING

Though you have come from Foreign soil,
You're welcome to our shores,
If you'll stick to honest toil
And do your daily chores.
I care not how you vote, my friend,
Or what your creed may be;
I care not how much gold you spend
Or what your pedigree.

Don't care what kind of clothes
You wear,
What kind of home you've got,
If you're a well-fed millionaire,
Or sleep upon a cot;
And I don't care what kind of car
You drive to work each day,
Or if you smoke a fine cigar,
Or humble pipe of clay.

But don't you start a strike parade,
Or bund of any kind,
Or any colored-shirt brigade,
Or any foreign blind;
And listen fellow, lend an ear—
I'm telling you to take care—
If you don't like it over here,
Then go right back over there.

— Selected.

WHY THE SHRINE

THE THERE is more to the Mystic Shrine than a mere social club where men go to frolic. There is more to the Mystic Shrine than the wonderful work done in the correction of twisted limbs of crippled children. There is a definite philosophy, a practical system of living and being.

The Shrine is a school that teaches its membership a way of living that is different—that is better than the ordinary plan. To face the problem of life with a smile, to look into faces of people with a cheerful grin, to live usefully yet joyously, to achieve much without harming others, to be optimistic rather than pessimistic, to be iconoclastic, breaking down the idols of egotism and of self-aggrandizement, to know that one good man is as good as another and often a little bit better. These are a few of the things men learn in the school of the Shrine.

It is always unfortunate to take life seriously. But for a man to take himself seriously is tragic. Grown up little boys we are, all of us. If the process of growing up has choked out of our lives the laughter, the play, the joy, then it is the job of the Shrine to restore those things so essential to happiness in life.

Having found out what you have to do—whether to lead an army, or to sweep a crossing; to keep a hotel, or to drive a hack; to address juries, or prescribe medicines—do it with all your might because it is your duty, your enjoyment, or the very necessity of your being.—William Mathews.

OUR regular meeting held at Shrine Headquarters, 97 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass., on Friday, the 25th day of September, 1942, was well attended. In fact, the only absence noted was that of George Lewis, who has taken advantage of the after vacation reduced rates and has gone to New Hampshire for a brief period.

Plans were formulated for the winter season and promises to be a very active year. The boys all attended and gave aid at the Shrine Circus recently held at the Boston Garden. It proved as successful as last year's and the quality of entertainment was even better, and benefited both the Shrine and thousands of kids in this community.

Because of the gas rationing and the difficulties in transportation, the Fall meeting of the Degree Staff at Winnipesaukee must necessarily be postponed. Plans are being made to have this party somewhere in the vicinity of Boston where good attendance will be assured.

LETTERS FROM CIRCUS DADDIES

THE Circus Committee has received many interesting letters from members in making returns for Circus tickets and we reprint some here to show the interest and co-operation received from Nobles who assisted in making this year's Circus a huge success.

"Circus Committee,
"Aleppo Temple,
"Boston, Mass.
"Gentlemen :

"Ten dollar check enclosed with the ticket book. Use all the tickets for the kids.

"I have a grandson whom the Japs machine-gunned at Pearl Harbor. Thank God they missed him—he's only four years old—but the bullets kicked up enough gravel in the driveway to cut his mother's legs.

"Sincerely yours,
"L. E. M."

"My Dear Nobles:

"Being so far away from the 'Big Town' it has been an impossibility for me to sell any tickets.

"But my interest is always with the children (having brought about 1800 into this world) and if my ten dollar check can give some of the unfortunate youngsters a happy evening, I willingly enclose check.

"Fraternally yours,
"R. S. F., M.D., Oxford."

"Neosho, Missouri,
"August 22, 1942.

"R. G. Wilson, Jr., Potentate,
"97 Huntington Ave.,
"Boston, Mass.

"Dear Sir:

"Enclosed herewith my check for $10.00 in payment for book of Circus tickets. Also enclosed 14 tickets for use in taking children to the Circus. The other 6 tickets am sending home (Medford) for use by friends and relatives. Would like to attend the Circus with my wife but have been with the War Dept. since January 1941.

"With best regards and wishes for the success of the Circus, I am

"Sincerely,

"Milton, Mass.,

"Dear Potentate:

"The Circus was magnificent and reflects great credit to the Shrine.

"I enclose check for tickets sent to me as a member.

"Fraternally,

"C. S. H."

"September 11, 1942.

"R. G. Wilson, Jr., Potentate,
"Aleppo Temple,
"Boston, Mass.

"Dear Noble:

"Here's my check for $10.00 for the Shrine Circus tickets, which you sent me some time ago, together with eighteen tickets, which I am returning for the kids.

"It's been a long time since I have been able to contribute to this most worthy cause and this year I'm most grateful that I can do my little bit.

"I'm keeping two tickets for Mrs. R. and myself and certainly am glad to be able to be called "Daddy" to those kids who are going to enjoy the Circus, which the Shrine that I am proud to belong to, puts on every year.

"I sincerely trust that this year's Circus will be the best ever, as I am sure it will be.

"Yours with and in the Faith,
"K. E. R."

HERE'S TO LAUGHTER

"HERE'S to laughter—the sunshine of the soul, the happiness of the heart, the leaven of the youth, the echo of innocence, the treasure of the humble, the wealth of the poor, the bead in the cup of pleasure.

"Without it humor would be dumb, wit would wither, dimples would disappear and smiles would shrivel. It dispels dejection, banishes the blues and mangles melancholy, for it is the foe of woe, the destroyer of depression, the birth cry of mirth and the swan song of sadness."

HERE we are again. In spite of world conditions the Shrine Bowling League will still continue to function every Thursday night this winter at the City Club.

The plans for the coming season were drawn up at a meeting on October 1. We can still use a few bowlers. Get your mind off your troubles and at the same time get that much needed exercise by joining the gang at the alleys. Send your name in to the Shrine office and we will notify you of the start for this season.

Our amiable President, John Eaton, is now convalescing at the Faulkner Hospital after undergoing an operation. By the time this magazine reaches the news stands John will probably be at his home.

So much for this month, next month we will have a lot more to talk about in the bowling line, we hope.

THE NEED OF THE WORLD

The world is needing you and me
In places where we ought to be;
Somewhere today it's needing you
To stand for what you know is true.
And needing me somewhere today
To keep the faith, let come what may.

The world is needing me and you
To share the tasks it has to do;
It needs high-minded men to stand
Against the thoughtless of the land;
Men who will scorn to stoop to wrong
To win the favor of the throng.

The world needs men who will not brag,
Men who will honor Freedom's Flag,
Men who, although the way is hard
Against the lure of shame will guard,
The world needs gentle men and true
And calls aloud to me and you.

The world needs men of lofty aim,
Not merely men of skill and fame,
Not merely leaders wise and grave,
Or learned men or soldiers brave,
But men whose lives are fair to see
Such men as you and I can be.

NOTES OF NOBLES

AMONG our many active members in the Armed Forces of the Country who received recent promotions is Major Lee H. Tucker of Fort H. G. Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., who was promoted to his present rank on July 9, 1942.

Noble Tucker is an outstanding officer serving as the Special Service Officer of Harbor Defenses of Long Island Sound.

As Public Relations Officer one of the Major's duties is that of Patron and Advisor of the Long Island Sound Defense Digest, a publication containing news of interest to Service men stationed at the forts located on Long Island Sound.

Word was recently received from Noble Wilbur E. Parker of Everett that he is stationed at the Army Base at Brooklyn, New York, with Company C, 719th Battalion, C.M.P. Noble Parker, who is the present Commander of Beauseant Commandry of Malden, advises us that he misses the boys on the Degree Staff of Aleppo. He has been a member of the staff for many years.

Noble William H. Edmundson is doing his part to promote the war effort through his position as Technical Consultant in charge of a project in Montgomery, Ala. His job is that of Chief Engineering Executive which involved the design as well as the operation of the entire plant. To quote Noble Edmundson, "We are getting along 'right smart', as they say down here and will soon be producing up to schedule. I have been here about two months, leaving a similar position with the Chicago Carton Company, a subsidiary of the United Biscuit Company, for the duration."

Noble Edmundson joined Aleppo 20 years ago and almost immediately moved to the middle west. His other affiliations are Mt. Lebanon Lodge and Boston Commandery, both of which memberships he still retains.

The Nobility of Oasis Temple of Charlotte, No. Carolina, have furnished another proof of the enterprise and alertness of fez-wearers.

Last month a ceremonial was held in Charlotte. Candidates' high-jinks and street stunts are strictly taboo. Public pranks during war-time could easily be misunderstood. But this up-and-at-em group of North Carolina Nobles took their 25 novices and stationed them on downtown corners and assigned a definite sales quota of $3,000 of War Stamps and Bonds. A uniformed patrolman watched each placarded novice. An old-fashioned medicine show, with barkers and the Temple's Dixie Doodlers, ballyhooed from post to post.

The public entered into the spirit with wonderful zest. They were going great guns when Charlotte was deluged with its heaviest downpour and electrical storm of the year. Just the same, in one hour and thirty minutes, the novices sold $62,235.25, or $700 a minute, which included over $3,000 of War Stamps. In addition, five rungs were added to the Ladder of Baby Smiles through purchases of Hospital Memberships. The press and public applauded this unique departure from usual horseplay to support the war effort.

"After I told this story to United States Army and Navy intelligence Officers in Washington recently, I was asked to retell it to their Commander-in-Chief personally. This I did. At the end of the interview, President Roosevelt said, 'Don't hold anything back in writing your story, Mr. Marsman. The people should know everything about the way the Japanese behaved in Hong Kong'."

These sentences prefaced the thrilling story, "I ESCAPED FROM HONG KONG," written by Noble Jan Henrik Marsman and published in three issues of the Saturday Evening Post. Noble Marsman was created a member of Aififi Temple of Tacoma, Washington, at a ceremonial held at Manila, during their pilgrimage in 1926. The intensely thrilling story contains reference to T. B. Wilson of the American President Steamship Lines who joined the Shrine at the same Ceremonial. The amazing narration of Jap atrocities and the redoubtable courage of the Chinese justified its prominent position in the Post. Recorder Floyd C. Kinnear of Aififi renewed acquaintanceship with these Nobles at Manila and Hong Kong on his last trip to the Orient.

In the July issue of Reader's Digest in the story of the "Heroic Defense of the Philippines" the author writes, "... were fighting generals. They took it with the men, where the men took it. I saw one of them — A. M. Jones — pick up a Browning machine gun and, accompanied by a sergeant, plunge across the enemy lines to rescue three privates who were cut off and out of ammunition. He brought them in, too." Major-General Albert Monmouth Jones is a member of Al Kader Temple of Portland, Ore.

"AS YOU SOW . . . "

SUCCESS in any organization depends upon co-operation of individuals in that organization. This is so evident in the light of experience as to be said to be almost axiomatic.

The Temple depends upon the support and assistance of the Nobility fully as much as upon the diligence and wisdom of the Potentate and the Divan. As you sow, so shall you reap is just as applicable now as in Biblical times, and the Shriner who sows good seed reaps the benefit for himself as well as for fellow Nobles.

Every Shriner should check up on his interest, or lack of it, and then ask himself the following questions:

1. What have I done the past years that has been of any benefit to my Temple?

2. What would become of my Temple if every Noble had done exactly as I have done?

3. How many times have I been absent when I could have been present if I had made any effort to do so?

4. Have I visited the sick and spoken a kind word of cheer to them in their affliction?

5. Would I be pleased to receive the same consideration in case of sickness I have given others?

6. Have I told any of my friends of the aims and objects of the Order, with a view to getting their petition?

7. If I have been negligent is it because I am at fault, or because the rest of the Nobility do not do their duty?

8. Am I going to continue in the same old way?

9. Am I in partnership with the rest of the Nobility in running the business of my Temple?

10. Is it right for someone else to do all the work and then for me to expect an equal share of the benefits?

How about it, Noble? Are you doing your part?

WILL YOU HELP?

If one Noble in every 50 gets a CANDIDATE for the CEREMONIAL, November 27, we will have a class of 200. How about it, Noble?

REMEMBER—CANDIDATES MAKE A CEREMONIAL

REMEMBER—The cost of Initiation at the present time is only $50.00, and also,

REMEMBER—When you propose a friend for membership in Aleppo Temple you have solidified your friendship and strengthened Aleppo's membership; and also,

REMEMBER—That by paying your annual dues and Crippled Children's Hospital assessment you are assisting in the upkeep of your Temple as well as helping some unfortunate crippled child regain its health that it may enjoy life as you do.

You can also be of service to Aleppo and make your Potentate happy by your personal effort in securing Petitions for affiliations from Shriners belonging to other Temples who now reside in our jurisdiction. They can enjoy Aleppo's hospitality much more by being a member of Aleppo. They only have to write their Recorder for a demit and place it with Aleppo. There is NO FEE for affiliation with Aleppo.

HAVE YOU MADE RETURNS ON YOUR SHRINE CIRCUS TICKETS? IF NOT, THE CIRCUS COMMITTEE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR ASSISTANCE IN CLOSING THE BOOKS OF THE SECOND ANNUAL CIRCUS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY THE RETURN OF YOUR TICKETS AND A CHECK TO COVER THOSE USED, AS WELL AS DADDY TICKETS.

HONOR ROLL No. 4

CIRCUS DADDY CLUB TO DATE:—IN ORDER OF RECEIPT

THE following members of Aleppo Temple have joined our Circus Daddy Club since the recent printing of Honor Roll No. 3. These Circus Daddies purchased and returned to the committee some or all of their Shrine Circus tickets in order that orphans and underprivileged children might enjoy free, an afternoon of real happiness at Aleppo's 2nd Annual Shrine Circus as their guests.

This list has been compiled from the Circus Committee receipts up to October 8. A final list will be published in the November issue of the ALEPO NEWS. If you have not made returns on your Circus tickets and still wish to be a Circus Daddy there is plenty of room and a real need at this time due to the fact that the Circus Committee was deluged with requests for free tickets to take the kiddies to the Circus. As the requests for underprivileged children far exceeded the number of tickets donated to our Daddy Club, the committee made up the balance and you can greatly relieve the pressure and join the Daddy Club in making your return for Circus tickets. Your name will then be listed on the November Daddy List and Honor Roll.
